Students beginning their study of Chinese in middle school have the potential to qualify for the Seal of Biliteracy and should expect to enter the UO Chinese Flagship at the Intermediate Mid-Advanced Low variety of familiar topics.

Students participating in Chinese immersion programs have the potential to qualify for the Seal of Biliteracy and should expect to enter the UO Chinese Flagship at the Advanced Low proficiency level. Students at this level can communicate clearly about a variety of topics related to personal and general interests.

Students entering two years of Chinese study in high school should expect to enter the UO Chinese Flagship at the Novice High proficiency level. Students engaging in four years of study should expect to enter at the Intermediate Low-Intermediate Mid proficiency level. Students at this level can communicate simple ideas about some familiar topics.

Students engaging in two years of Chinese study in community college should expect to enter the UO Chinese Flagship at the Novice High proficiency level. Students engaging in four years of study should expect to enter at the Intermediate Low-Intermediate Mid proficiency level. Students at this level can communicate simple ideas about some familiar topics.
Chinese Flagship

Entering at Novice Level
- Year 1: Novice-level coursework
- Year 2: Flagship domestic summer study
- Year 3: Intermediate-level coursework
- Year 4: Flagship overseas summer study
- Year 5: Advanced-level coursework

Entering at Intermediate Level
- Year 1: Intermediate-level coursework
- Year 2: Flagship overseas summer study
- Year 3: Advanced-level coursework
- Year 4: Overseas Capstone

Entering at Advanced Level
- Year 1: Advanced-level coursework
- Year 2: Overseas Capstone
- Years 3 & 4: Superior-level coursework

This project is a public-private partnership sponsored by the National Security Education Program (NSEP). The content of the information provided does not reflect the position of the U.S. government nor imply endorsement.